

PSALM 1

Blessed is he who, walks not in evil plans; stands not with a sinner, nor a scoffing man.

2 But the law of the Lord, is his richest delight; He meditates in it, both day and the night.

3 Like a tree by the water, yielding fruit in its time; leaves never wither, prosp'ring in every clime.

4 Not so are the wicked, for they are like chaff; driven by winds, on a faraway path.

5 Thus the wicked will not stand, at the judgment seat; nor sinners assemble, where the righteous meet.

6 For the Lord knows the way, where the righteous abound; but the way of the wicked, shall no more be found.