

PSALM 14

The stupid in heart, say that no God exists; with decaying bad deeds, all that's good do they miss.

- 2 The Lord gazed from heaven, on all Adam's sons; for followers of God, to find even one.
- 3 But all go aside, and unitedly turn; not one doing good, or willing to learn.
- 4 Do all those who labor, in vain never care? Eating people like bread, nor calling Me there.
- 5 There they were startled, and full of alarm; for God's with the righteous, forever their arm.
- 6 You have paled at the plans, of the depressed and low; for the Lord is their refuge, wherever they go.
- 7 Oh that Israel were saved, out of Zion O Lord; so the exiled tribes, will rejoice and be glad.
