

PSALM 100

Split the ear with joyful shouts, unto our mighty Lord; every land upon the earth, give thanks with one accord.

- 2 Serve the Lord with gleeful hearts, and gladness filled with mirth; come before His face with songs, of triumph all the earth.
- 3 Know that the Lord is God alone, and we are His own flock; His people and His precious sheep, who pasture near our Rock.
- 4 Come to His gates with joyfulness, before His courts with praise; lifting hands of thankfulness, to kneel before His name.
- 5 The Lord is good and gracious, His kindness without end; His faithfulness and firmness, to each generation sends.
