

PSALM 111

I'll praise the Lord and celebrate, lift hands unto the Lord; with all my heart among the throng, assembled by His Word.

- 2 The Lord's great works are wonderful, and all His deeds supreme; followed by the ones who take, delight in what they've seen.
- 3 His acts are full of grandeur, and godly majesty; His righteous justice standing strong, unto eternity.
- 4 He's done miracles aplenty, that we might recollect; the Lord is ever gracious, and so compassionate.
- 5 To those who do revere Him, He gives food that's freshly torn; eternally remembering, the compact He has sworn.
- 6 He displays to all the people, the great power of His acts; that they may be the heirs of all, that nations have held fast.
- 7 His hands have worked trustworthiness, with justice sure and right; all of His commandments will, continue day and night.
- 8 They stand fast sure forever, from today to end of days; He makes them right and stable, in a path that's plain and straight.
- 9 He sent forth His redemption, and each tribe was straightly saved; a compact ever faithful, by His holy awesome name.
- 10 Awe of the Lord's where wisdom starts, His prudence unto all; for those who praise Him all their days, in hymns of praise to call.
