

PSALM 119

Aleph A

- 1 All happy are they, whose paths are true yet; who walk in the precepts, those that the Lord set.
- 2 And happy are they, as His witness they guard; who follow Him with, every beat of their heart.
- 3 Also they never, do unrighteous deeds; but walk down His path, on the road where He leads.
- 4 As You have commanded, that we build a hedge; protecting Your mandates, with due diligence.
- 5 Ah that my paths, were established and true; so that I might guard, all of Your wise statutes.
- 6 At that time I'll be shameless, when fully I've scanned; Your wonderful precepts, and holy commands.
- 7 As I lift up my hands, with a heart that's upright; Your justice doth goad me, Your law well in sight.
- 8 All Your enactments, I keep and regard; never relinquish, Your care O my God.

Beth B

- 9 By what way can young men, walk innocent paths? Guarding themselves, with Your Word to the last.
- 10 Beside Thee I follow, with my heart complete; O let me not stray, from Your law that I seek.
- 11 Beneath every fold, that lies deep in my heart; I've hidden Your Word, that I don't miss the mark.
- 12 Blessed are You Lord, (so I kneel unto Thee); goad me with Your truth, teach me Your decrees.
- 13 By my lips I've made known, (from north unto south); and enumerated, the words of Your mouth.
- 14 Brightened and cheerful, Your witness my road; and Your testimonies, are worth more than gold.
- 15 But I will long ponder, Your mandates each day; and scan for my vision, the truth of Your way.
- 16 Basking in Your Word, each statute and law; I'll never forget it, (but hold it in awe).

Gimel G

- 17 Give me Your bounty, 'tis You that I serve; that I may live, and hold fast to Your Word.
- 18 Gazing to see, with my eyes opened wide; all of the wonders, Your precepts provide.
- 19 Guest and a foreigner, while here on earth; uncover Your precepts, so I'll be alert.
- 20 God my soul breaks, in desirous thoughts; for Your right judgments, that I've always sought.
- 21 Giving the proud, the rebuke they deserve; cursed all who wander, and stray from Your Word.
- 22 Guarding Your witness, and keeping Your truth; rolls back the disgrace, wherewith I've been abused.
- 23 Governors sat, and spoke vicious words all; but I as Your bondman, did ponder Your law.
- 24 Great is Your witness, that I delight in; acting as counselor, like prudent men.

Daleth D

- 25 Dust and the mud, is to what my soul clings; make me alive, with the Word that You bring.
- 26 Declaring Your ways, then You took heed to me; Your law was a goad, to prod on faithfully.
- 27 Direct all my paths, with Your mandates and truth; that I may ponder, the deeds that You do.
- 28 Dripping with sorrow, my soul seems to fail; strengthen with Your Word, that I may prevail.
- 29 Decline thus my road, from falsehood and lies; graciously setting, Your law 'fore my eyes.
- 30 Daily I try truth, in Your faithful way; Your judgments my balance, when walking each day.
- 31 Disappointment will never, come Lord unto me; for I adhere, to Your testimony.
- 32 Down Your true paths Lord, I run in Your law; You broaden my heart, and fill it with awe.

He H

- 33 Help me to flow Lord, in all Your law's ways; guard me and keep me, through all of my days.

- 34 Heap understanding, and Your Word I'll guard; with all of my heart, I will hedge in Your Word.
- 35 Hold me on the track, as Your law I tramp down; there I desire, to always be found.
- 36 Heartfelt I'm stretching, to Your witness true; and never to covetous, gain as they do.
- 37 Help my eyes to turn, from all evil and guile; enliven me on, Your true road mile by mile.
- 38 Hold fast Your Word, for I serve You by love; in reverent fear, for Your kindness above.
- 39 Hurtful reproaches, I fear turn away; for all of Your verdicts, are true and well made.
- 40 Having longed for Your statutes, behold where I stand; make me to live, by Your righteous command.

Vau V

- 41 Verily mercy, doth come Lord from You; Your Word's my salvation, wherein I'm rescued.
- 42 Visions of words, that expose evil deeds; I trust in Your Word, (for the strength that I need).
- 43 Voices of truth, never snatch from my mouth; for Your Word's the hope, on which I can hold out.
- 44 Very great effort, I put to hold on; to Your law that stretches, forever beyond.
- 45 Victorious I am, and walking so free; when I tread upon, Your commands faithfully.
- 46 Voicing a witness, before royalty; I'm never confounded, or ashamed of Thee.
- 47 Vaunting Your Word, as my greatest delight; O how I love, every ordinance right.
- 48 Verily I'll lift, my hands to Your truth; love them and meditate, on Your statutes.

Zain Z

- 49 Zealous I mark, all Your words like a slave; hoping in You, and Your promise to save.
- 50 Zesty and lively, Your speech has made me; a great consolation, in my misery.
- 51 Zipping with arrogance, scoffing about; I've held fast Your Word, when attacked by their mouths.
- 52 Zeal for Your judgments, that I've loved from old; helps me O Lord, and comforts my soul.

- 53 Zero's the number, who hold to Your law; so horror has seized me, such evil I saw.
- 54 Zion's the pattern, like home where I dwell; I sing Your commandments, in hymns that I tell.
- 55 Zoom through the night, comes Your name through my mind; Lord I have guarded, Your law so sublime.
- 56 Zest and deliverance, with Your goodness set; are all mine because, of Your law I have kept.

Cheth CH

- 57 Choosing You Lord, as my inheritance; I will keep Your Word gladly, I promise You this.
- 58 Cherish with favor, my heart seeks Your face; bend down to help me, as Your Word proclaims.
- 59 Challenging ways, I considered ahead; and turned my feet unto, the things that You've said.
- 60 Changing my speed, I hurried to stand; and never did linger, to keep Your commands.
- 61 Chains of the wicked, have fastened around; but I've not forgotten, Your precepts so sound.
- 62 Chanting to Thee, in the midst of the night; I'll rise to give thanks, for Your judgments so right.
- 63 Chosen dear friends, who all revere Thee; we keep Your commandments, and sweet unity.
- 64 Charity Lord, fills up the land; kindly You teach us, Your statutes that stand.

Teth TE

- 65 TEnderly You care, do good for me Lord; for I am Your bondman, enslaved to Your Word.
- 66 TEach me sound judgment, to know what is right; for all of Your precepts, are firm in my sight.
- 67 TErribly hurt, back when I went astray; but now I hedge in, Your Word every day.
- 68 TEach Your commandments, O You Who are good; that ever I follow, the things that I should.
- 69 TEmping with lies, the arrogant rail; but in my whole heart, Your precepts prevail.
- 70 TEeming with fat, their hearts stupid and thick; Your law is my pleasure, to Your Word I stick.
- 71 TError came to me, afflicted but these; helped me for good, when I learned Your decrees.

72 Test me with silver, and gold for what's best; the law from Your mouth, is all my confidence.

Yod Y

73 Your hands have made me, fashioning all; give me understanding, and teach me Your law.

74 Yearning for Your Word, that others might see; all those who revere You, will brighten with glee.

75 Your judgments are right, I know this O Lord; You faithfully help, when I'm hurt by the world.

76 Yes may Your kindness, console me and save; according to Your Word, for I am Your slave.

77 Youthful compassion, revives me each day; for only Your precepts, bring pleasure my way.

78 Your mandates I ponder, the proud walk in shame; they tell lies about me, speak words that are vain.

79 Yonder are those, who revere Thee and turn; with me to discover, Your witness and learn.

80 Yea let my heart, be true with Thy law; and not be ashamed, for on You do I call.

Kaph K

81 Keeping Your Word, as my great hope; although my soul faints, salvation's my scope.

82 Kindly Your comfort, when will it come? My eyes are failing, until Your Word's done.

83 Kindled fire below, I'm a bag in the smoke; but I don't forget, Your law that You wrote.

84 Kingly I serve Thee, for how many days? Bring justice against those, who chase me away.

85 Killing me now, in a pit where I'll fall; the prideful wish evil, and don't know Your law.

86 Keep me from those, who wrongfully chase; for Your commandments, are true all my days.

87 Knowing Your precepts, I held fast to them; when some tried to end me, the vilest of men.

88 Kindness and mercy, revive me each day; for I guard the witness, that from Your mouth came.

Lamed L

- 89 Lord You're forever, and so is Your Word; established in heaven, (where Your voice is heard).
- 90 Laying the earth, You have made it to stand; all generations, see Your faithful hand.
- 91 Lasting to this day, they all stay to serve; by Your faithful judgments, and Your holy Word.
- 92 Laws that You've given, are my great delight; without them in trouble, I surely had died.
- 93 Lively and vital, I now stand with You; for I'll not mislay, Your mandates so true.
- 94 Let Your salvation, come quickly to me; for I am Yours, and Your statutes I seek.
- 95 Looking to kill me, the wicked await; but I understand, every promise You've made.
- 96 Large and so spacious, Your law sets me free; most completely perfect, that I've ever seen.

Mem M

- 97 Meditating on, Your law that I love; fills all my day, with Your joy from above.
- 98 Making me wiser, than all of my foes; Your precepts are with me, wherever I go.
- 99 More understanding, than all those who teach; I think on Your witness, (the truth that You preach).
- 100 Maintaining Your statutes, I'm prudent and wise; more than the elders, with discerning eyes.
- 101 My feet I've restricted, from every bad road; to hedge and protect, all the words that You've told.
- 102 Minding Your judgments, that You have made known; I'll turn not away, but make Your truth my own.
- 103 My palate finds sweetest, Your Word most of all; than honey to my mouth, is Your righteous law.
- 104 Mandates You've given, help me understand; I hate every false way, (untrue roads of man).

Nun N

- 105 Now unto me, Your Word is a lamp; a bright shining beacon, down paths that I tramp.
- 106 Near to my vows, I'll rise up and do; guarding Your judgments, all righteous and true.

- 107 Nourish O Lord, with the life from Your Word; for I am depressed, by the evil I've heard.
- 108 Nice and so pleasing, my mouth's gift to You; O Lord for You teach me, Your verdicts all true.
- 109 Never forgetting, Your precepts allows; my soul to be healthy, when evil abounds.
- 110 Nets have the wicked, set out so I'd fall; but I never erred, or strayed off from Thy law.
- 111 Naming Your witness, my heritage dear; forever they bring, to my heart joy and cheer.
- 112 Nothing can stop me, from doing Your law; I've stretched out my heart, so that I'd keep it all.

Samech S

- 113 Skeptical thoughts, I hate and despise; but I love Your law, hold it fast 'fore my eyes.
- 114 Secretly hidden, You're my shield and stay; I wait for Your Word, and trust it day by day.
- 115 Spoilers who seek me, must turn and depart; God I guard Your precepts, with all of my heart.
- 116 Sustain me in life, by the speeches You make; that I'm not ashamed, for I trust Thee to save.
- 117 Support me and I'll be, set free and preserved; as ever I gaze on, Your law that I've heard.
- 118 Straying from Your truth, they're frauds full of lies; such will You tread down, for You they despise.
- 119 Soon You'll remove, all earth's wicked as dross; so I love Your edicts, Your words of great cost.
- 120 Skin bristles up, at my reverence for You; I respect Your judgments, in all that I do.

Ain AI

- 121 Alming to do Your judgments, I carry out what's right; never leave me Lord, to oppressors when they fight.
- 122 Aid me as Your servant, and prosper me O God; keep me from the arrogant, for they seek to defraud.
- 123 Alling my eyes fail me, hoping to be saved; seeking Your commandments, and Your righteous ways.
- 124 Aide unto Your servant, You are kind and full of awe; goad me with Your precepts, and teach me from Your law.

- 125 Airing understanding, that I may serve with truth; and know Your testimony, a witness and a proof.
- 126 Aimed at breaking up, Your Word are evil ones; so now's the time O Lord, to do what must be done.
- 127 Airily enraptured, I love Your law so bold; more than shimmering wealth, or even purest gold.
- 128 Alling from their lies, I hate their words untrue; but I have set Your mandates, straight before my view.

Pe P

- 129 Preserving Your commandments, O so wonderful to me; my soul obeys them gladly, for Your goodness ever free.
- 130 Prudent understanding, to the simple You dispense; shining as a glorious light, Your Word gives perfect sense.
- 131 Panting with an open mouth, I breathe deep to inhale; Your law that I desire, (for none of it shall fail).
- 132 Pitiful and merciful, O Lord turn unto me; judged as one who loves You, for Your name I always seek.
- 133 Prepare my steps within Your Word, and let not vanity; ever dominate my life, with its iniquity.
- 134 Preserve me from oppressors, all those of Adam's kin; and I will guard Your statutes, (and keep them to the end).
- 135 Present to me Your statutes, for You I serve alone; and shine Your face upon me, Your glory all aglow.
- 136 Pulsing water channels, of tears run down my eyes; for they guard not Your statutes, and all Your words despise.

Tsaddi TS

- 137 Thy righteousness O Lord, is oh so very great; Your judgments ever upright, Your ordinances straight.
- 138 Testimonies You appoint, commanding what is right; are ever firm and faithful, and righteous in Your sight.
- 139 Troublers have forgotten, Your Word so they're my foes; my jealousy for You O Lord, makes me to want to go.
- 140 Thy words are pure as metal, that smithy has refined; and so Your servant loves them, keeping them in mind.
- 141 Taunts rain hard against me, and I feel so despised; but I will never mislay, Your precepts from my eyes.
- 142 Truth is Your law O Lord, and all Your righteous ways; last throughout eternity, (and so Your name we praise).

- 143 Troubles and great anguish, have taken hold on me; yet Your commands are my delights, my pleasure is in Thee.
- 144 To See Your righteous witness, Your everlasting Word; I'll truly live and understand, as I keep what I've heard.

Qoph Q

- 145 Quickly I cried, with all of my heart; "See me O Lord," Your statutes I guard.
- 146 Questioning You, I asked You to save; for I'll keep Your edicts, in all of my ways.
- 147 Questing at dawn, and dusk there I yelled; hoping in Your words, that You freely tell.
- 148 Quietly throughout the night, my eyes anticipate; so that in Your Word, I might meditate.
- 149 Quicken and revive me Lord, according to Your truth; hear me when I call to You, in kindness as You do.
- 150 Quickly evil men approach, to run after their plans; for they widen and recede, from Your law (that they can't stand).
- 151 Quantities of truth, do Your commandments hold; and You are always near to help, from youth until I'm old.
- 152 Quoting testimonies, I've known them many years; and You have set them steadfast, forever they are here.

Resh R

- 153 Regard now my affliction, and rescue me this day; for all Your wondrous statutes, I never will mislay.
- 154 Revive with Your commandments, enliven with Your law; in every contest that I face, redeem me from it all.
- 155 Remote from all the wicked, is the wholeness You provide; for they never follow, Your precepts (full of life).
- 156 Rich in Your compassion, O Lord Your mercy's great; make me alive and vital, by the judgments You have made.
- 157 Running all to catch me, my enemies attack; but I will never stretch away, or Your Word ever lack.
- 158 Rising up in secret, I saw their treacherous deeds; and since they never kept Your Word, my heart within was grieved.
- 159 Regard the great affection, that I have for Your truth; O Lord revive me quickly, and then Your mercy prove.
- 160 Righteous judgments last forever, every one is true; Your Word is faithful from the start, established sure by You.

Shin SH

- 161 SHameless rulers chase me, for no fault of my own; but my heart stays reverent, for Your Word I've known.
- 162 SHowd I find great treasure, or booty valued high; I'm brightened more by Your great Word, (for it is ever nigh).
- 163 SHams and falsehoods I detest, I loathe those telling lies; for Your law is what I love, Your statutes that I prize.
- 164 SHining daily seven times, in praise I celebrate; all Your righteous judgments, the true verdicts that You state.
- 165 "SHalom" great peace is unto all, who love Your precepts yet; they'll fall upon no stumblingblock, nor ever be upset.
- 166 SHowing Your commandments, to be faithful to the end; Lord I hope upon You, and the salvation You send.
- 167 SHall my soul keep Your precepts, testimonies too; I will prove my deep affection, Lord I have for You.
- 168 SHortly I'll keep Your mandates, Your witness unto me; for all my ways are open, my paths lead unto Thee.

Tau T

- 169 Teach me by Your Word, give understanding true; for my every shout, approaches unto You.
- 170 Thy graciousness O Lord, comes before my face; rescue me and save me, by commandments full of grace.
- 171 Talking of You words, gush forth in hymns of praise; for Your commandments goad me, and guide me in my ways.
- 172 Tongue and lip do utter, praises for Your speech; for Your commandments bring me, great prosperity.
- 173 Thy hand surrounds protects me, and helps me in my way; for I select Your precepts, I chose Your holy way.
- 174 The great desire I have, is for Your saving grace; Your law O Lord is my delight, the pleasure of my days.
- 175 There my soul will praise Thee, for all the life You give; Your judgments aid and help me, they succor where I live.
- 176 Today when I have wandered, like sheep that go astray; search out Your lost servant, I remember Your law's way.
