

PSALM 99

The Lord ascends upon His throne, let every person shake; He sits among His cherub hosts, let all the earth now quake.

- 2 The Lord is great on Zion's hill, and high upon His mount; over every land and tribe, (all nations round about).
- 3 Lift your hands before Him, His noble awesome name; is holy and most sacred, (revere Him day to day).
- 4 Messiah's strength and majesty, beloved in righteous laws; will bring to pass true judgments, for Jacob's righteous cause.
- 5 Raise up the Lord our mighty God, and fall down at His feet; the footstool of His promised one, Messiah's holy seat.
- 6 In days gone by with Moses, Aaron and Samuel all; that called upon His mighty name, He listened to their call.
- 7 He spoke to them in a bright cloud, a pillar in the sky; to hedge them safe a witness, that His Word's ever nigh.
- 8 Lord God You kept Your eye on them, forgiving all their sins; though evil deeds among their tribes, brought justice unto men.
- 9 Lift up the Lord our God and worship, on His holy mount; the Lord our God is holy, (a springing endless fount).
